QUESTION: Do you to apply to a learning community?
ANSWER: You do not have to apply for a Learning Community, but do need to sign up for all course in a Learning Community at once (Steps in the Help Guide section!)

QUESTION: there a way to know which math you qualify for? Is that in the planner?
ANSWER: It might be in the Planner, but if you don’t have a planner, feel free to email your academic advisor and they can tell you!

QUESTION: Hi I thought that I had to take pre calculus before I took calculus because of my transfer GPA. I saw a few minutes ago that I meet the requirements to go straight to calculus. Which can I sign up for?
ANSWER: If you meet the requirements to start right into Calc I, then you can do either Precalc or Calc I. Placements are a “science” so they’ve done their research into why those HS GPAs and ACT/SAT scores make sense for that course prerequisite.

QUESTION: Hello! Is Bio 1107 taken together with Bio 1107L?
ANSWER: Biol 1107 and 1107L are typically both needed in our degrees, but you sign up for them as 2 separate things. BIOL 1107 is the first priority (lecture) and then look for a 1107L. If you absolutely cannot find an 1107L, we can try for it in the Spring semester.

QUESTION: Hi! I was planning on taking online classes this semester but some of the classes I need aren’t available (or they’re waitlisted), so what do I do at that point?
ANSWER: Talk to an advisor and they might be able to help you look into other options

QUESTION: Do you have resources to help students navigate through biology careers.
ANSWER: Yes! We can talk to you about potential careers and even more depth information can be found on the Career Planning and Development website! https://careers.kennesaw.edu/students/assessment.php

QUESTION: What are the chances of you getting off the waitlist for a lab?
ANSWER: Ultimately, it depends on what spot on the waitlist you are! But, definitely possible!

QUESTION: Are honor students required to take all honor classes?
ANSWER: There are honors requirements, but you’re not required to talk all of your courses in a semester as honors. Reach out the Honors Advising and they can help! https://honors.kennesaw.edu/

QUESTION: I’m a transfer student. What if all of the classes I want are currently full?
ANSWER: Waitlist for the courses that you are most interested in and talk to your advisor about back-up options/plans.
